IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA WESTERN DIVISION

NO. 5:13-CR-76-FL-1

JAMEE DUCHEA TERRY,) Petitioner)
v.)	ORDER
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) Respondent.)

This matter is before the court on defendant's motion for assistance in filing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel (DE 84). Where the motion attacks the validity or correctness of defendant's conviction, the court hereby provides petitioner with notice, pursuant to Castro v. United States, 540 U.S. 375 (2003), that it intends to recharacterize the instant motion as an attempt to file a motion to vacate, set aside, or correct, his sentence under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Pursuant to Castro, the court warns defendant that this recharacterization means that any subsequent § 2255 motion will be subject to the restrictions on "second or successive motions." Castro, 540 U.S. at 383. In addition, the court provides defendant with an opportunity to withdraw the motion or to amend it so that it contains all the § 2255 claims he believes he has. Id. The court also notifies defendant of the § 2255 one year period of limitations, and the four dates in § 2255 to be used in determining the starting date for the limitations period. See 28 U.S.C. § 2255(f).

The court hereby permits defendant to file a response to the court's proposed recharacterization within 21 days from the date of this order. The court advises defendant that if, within the time set by the court, he agrees to have the motion recharacterized or does not respond in opposition to the recharacterization, the court shall consider the motion as one under § 2255 and shall consider it filed as of the date the original motion was filed. If, however, defendant responds within the time set by the court but does not agree to have the motion recharacterized, the court will not treat it as a § 2255 motion and will dispose of the motion in accordance with the applicable procedural and jurisdictional rules of law governing criminal case matters.

SO ORDERED, this the 16th day of December, 2016.

LOUISE W. FLANAGAN United States District Judge
